

Monika Kaźmierczak is currently the city carillonist of Gdańsk, Poland, a position she has held since 2001. She was the president of the Polish Carillon Association between 2011-2015 and is currently the secretary of the association. She began her musical studies on piano, then earning a master's degree studying music theory at the Music Academy in Gdańsk. After becoming city carillonist, she studied at the Netherlands Carillon School, and received a master's degree in 2005. Finally, she received a doctorate in Carillon from the Music Academy in Gdańsk in 2012. Kaźmierczak plays throughout many countries in Europe, including Lithuania, France, the Netherlands, and others. She has worked with the Hevelius Brass Quintet, and also plays a mobile carillon. She currently teaches carillon at the Music Academy in Gdańsk, and other subjects at the Elblag State Music School.